2025 INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

WISCONSIN-WHITewater MEN, JACKSONVILLE STATE WOMEN CAPTURE 2025 INTERCOLLEGIATE TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS TITLES IN LAS VEGAS

Wisconsin-Whitewater's men and Jacksonville State's women claimed team titles at the 2025 Intercollegiate Team Championships, which was contested at South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas.

Championship rounds from the event will air on CBS Sports Network throughout April and May.

The men's team final capped the evening as Wisconsin-Whitewater swept Wichita State 3-0 in the best-of-five Baker format to secure its second ITC title and deny the Shockers a 14th championship.

Both teams started cautiously under the TV lights, trading early miscues. Wichita State rallied late in Game 1 with strikes in the final frames, but Wisconsin-Whitewater answered. Anchor Garrett Meadows delivered a clutch double in the 10th frame to seal a 213-205 win.

That momentum carried over. The Warhawks dominated Game 2, 236-158, behind a five-bagger, and closed out the match in Game 3 with steady, clean bowling and a decisive four-bagger midway through the game.

Head coach Brandon Mooney credited his players' composure and adjustments.

"I'm so happy for my guys because they're the ones who put in the work all year," Mooney said. "We made the adjustments we needed and came away with the win."

Meadows earned All-Tournament honors, while Wichita State's Spencer Robarge was named MVP.

Earlier, Jacksonville State's women completed a dominant week with a 3-0 sweep of Mount Mercy to win the program's first ITC national title.

Motivated by a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championship just one week earlier, the Gamecocks set the tone early. They opened Game 1 with four consecutive strikes and rolled to a 218-192 win.

Game 2 tightened late after a pair of Jacksonville State mistakes, but Erin Klemencic converted a key split in the ninth frame, and anchor Annalise O'Bryant closed the door in the 10th for a narrow 183-180 victory.

Mount Mercy challenged in Game 3, briefly taking the lead, but late opens proved costly. Jacksonville State capitalized, and O'Bryant sealed the title with a fill ball in the 10th for a 194-182 win.

Head coach Shannon O'Keefe called the victory especially meaningful.

"To cap off this season with a national championship and send these seniors out with another title is very special," O'Keefe said.

Sophomore Dannielle Henderson was named tournament MVP, while senior Anna Warkel also earned All-Tournament honors.

FRESHMEN SHINE AS WALSH, KLEMENCIC CLAIM SINGLES TITLES

A pair of freshman brought home the 2025 Intercollegiate Singles Championships national titles with Jacksonville State's Klemencic taking top honors for the women while Blake Walsh of Mount Mercy emerged victorious for the men.

Just hours after the Gamecocks secured their first ITC national title, Klemencic earned an individual crown by securing a dramatic 245-236 win over Louisiana Tech's Kylee Trexler.

Trexler opened with six straight strikes, while Klemencic stayed close with a mix of strikes and spares. The match shifted in the eighth frame when Trexler left a 4-pin. Klemencic capitalized with three consecutive strikes after making a key ball change.

In the 10th frame, needing a strike to secure the title, Klemencic delivered, finishing with a high flush shot to clinch her second national title of the day.

"I knew it was good out of my hand," Klemencic said. "I was just waiting for it to hook."

The freshman's performance throughout the finals was dominant, striking 17 times in 23 attempts across her semifinal and title match.

Trexler reached the final by defeating Youngstown State's Amanda Granata, 235-213.

The first title of the day went to Mount Mercy freshman Blake Walsh, who captured the ISC men's championship with a 235-190 win over McKendree's Nicholas Blagojevic.

Walsh showcased remarkable consistency, striking on all 12 shots on the left lane and 17 times overall across two matches. He opened with a 237-180 semifinal victory before claiming the title.

Despite early nerves, Walsh settled in once competition began.

"Once I got on the set for TV, the nerves went away and it just turned into bowling," Walsh said.

Blagojevic advanced to the final with a 222-187 win over SCAD-Savannah's Gael Egana.

For Walsh, the victory capped an impressive freshman campaign and was made even more meaningful by the support of his teammates and family back home in Australia.

"It's been such an incredible year, and this team is so good," Walsh said. "I feel like I'm trusted and believed in."

Teams and individuals qualified for the championships through sectional events held across the country in March, with all rounds leading up to the televised finals streamed on BowlTV.
