

BOWLERS JOURNAL

UP FRONT

4 Letter from the Editor

A special issue of Bowlers Journal, 100 years in the making.
By Bob Johnson

6 Contributors

Meet some of the talented people who helped make this 300-page edition possible.

10 About 1913

There was no radio or TV, but there was a sport called bowling.
By J.R. Schmidt

12 Leading Off

How this “perfect” 300-page edition of BJI came to be.
By Keith Hamilton

15 Cover Story

See how Bowlers Journal has evolved through a century of classic covers.

INSIDE LINE

27 Famous Families

Hall of Fame honors for Miller and Skidmore; a commercial for Robin Romeo's mom.

28 Time Capsule

For a 15-year-old kid bowler, this magazine was better than Life.
By J.R. Schmidt

38 Revival of a Legend

“The Hoinke” was down for the count, but now it's back.
By Dennis Bergendorf

OBSESSED WITH BOWLING

40 The Builder

Chris Barbee turns his Oklahoma yard into a bowling ball gallery.
By Bill Vint

42 The Pin Man

A childhood gift from his dad became a lifelong hobby for Patrick Lajko.

44 The Collectors

Four men who have turned their love of bowling into mountains of memorabilia.

48 The Do-It-Yourselfer

A retired New York cop transforms autographs and souvenirs into pieces of art.

PRO BOWLING

49 The New ESPN Team

Mike Jakubowski joins Randy Pedersen on PBA broadcasts beginning in December.

50 PBA Insider

Geoff Reiss departs the PBA for a new position with Twitter.
By Lyle Zikes

57 PBA50 Tour Wrap-up

Entries were down but the star power was up on the senior circuit in 2013.

60 Regional Roundup

The reigning World Tour champ joins the Regional Invitational finals.
By Lyle Zikes

BOWLING IN POP CULTURE

62 Star Power

Harnessing the magnetism of celebrities who love to bowl.
By Gianmarc Manzione

69 Celebrity Scrapbook

BJI may not be TMZ, but we've “caught” a lot of stars bowling through the years.

78 At the Movies

Excerpts from the late Roger Ebert's reviews of 10 “bowling movies.”

84 Television

You won't believe how many of TV's best-written shows have featured bowling.

93 Radio

The “Tenpin Tattler,” and a future “boss jock” who broadcasted from a bowling alley.

96 Music

Bowling has given everyone from folkies to metal bands a lot to sing about.

98 Art

From LeRoy Neiman to our own Mort Luby Jr., a juried collection of tenpin artistry.

102 Cartoons

Kelly Kulick's encounter with Spider-Man, and other animated bowling adventures.

104 Charles M. Schulz

The bowling art of the man who gave us Snoopy and the gang.
By Bob Johnson

106 Advertising

The “Bud” who jumped to Miller, and other tenpin tales from Madison Avenue.

CLINIC

110 What Made Them Great

Earl Anthony: No flash, just flush — shot after shot... after shot.
By Mike McGrath

112 TV Strategies of the Pros

Getting to “the show” is one thing. Winning requires a plan.
By Johnny Campos

116 The Pro Approach

From camps to ball reps, saluting the pioneers of bowling coaching.
By Bill Spigner

121 No Holes Barred

Reviews of 13 new balls covering the full spectrum of ball motion.
By Joe Cerar Jr.

LISTS

134 Top 25 TV Bowling Moments

Mark London

138 100 More Bowling Destinations

Bill Mahin

146 Top 10 PBA Tournament of Champions Moments

Lyle Zikes

148 All-Star/U.S. Open Champions

149 Women's All-Star/U.S. Open Champions

150 PBA National/World Championship Winners

152 ABC/USBC Masters Champions

153 WIBC/USBC Queens Champions

154 Other Women's “Major” Winners

158 The PBA's “Unofficial Majors”

160 All-time BJI All-American Teams

172 Top 10 Bowling Books

Johnny Campos

174 PBA Players' Theme Music

Mike Jakubowski