

APPLY FOR A POSITION ON THE IBC YOUTH COMMITTEE

PHILOSOPHY

The IBC Youth Committee will be responsible for formulating the area of generative thinking related to youth activity after receiving the guiding information from the Strategic Planning Committee. That component will then be included in the USBC Strategic Plan. The Youth Committee and its component are aligned with the organization plan. The Youth Committee retains responsibility for youth components.

COMMITTEE MAKEUP

The Nominating Committee will review applications and provide recommendations to the IBC Youth Committee.

The size of the committee is not to exceed eleven (11) members. The committee should consist of the following:

1. USBC - Five (5) members for USBC.
2. BPAA - Five (5) members for BPAA.
3. At-large

The committee may include the following:

- Collegiate/high school representatives
- Coaches, program directors
- Athletes
- Proprietors
- Industry leaders
- Volunteers
- Non-aligned representatives (corporate partners, etc.)
- Current employees, former employees or temporary employees of USBC, or its predecessors or subsidiary organizations are not eligible to serve on as committee members. This includes those seeking nomination or appointment to committees.

TERM & TIME COMMITMENTS

- Three-year term
- Three (3) terms maximum
- Time commitment, 2-3 meetings per year

PURPOSE

The IBC Youth Committee monitors and promotes youth programs. It also makes recommendations regarding youth-specific benefits; youth-specific events; youth leader programs and elects the two (2) youth representatives to the USBC Board.

The IBC Youth Committees mission is to cultivate opportunities to grow youth bowling through services, developmental programs, and competitions.

This committee also presents recommended rule changes and youth dues to the USBC Board.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Monitors, promotes and reviews youth programs and services
- Sets strategic direction that is aligned with the BPAA and USBC Strategic Plan for board approval
- Recommends youth dues/rules
- Creates new programs
- Budget
- Determines eligibility requirements of Youth Committee and provides criteria input to the Nominating Committee for candidates
- Elects the two (2) youth representatives from the Youth Committee to the board of directors
- Selects chair

APPLY FOR A POSITION ON THE IBC YOUTH COMMITTEE

EXPECTATIONS

- Keeps each respective Board informed on youth programs and services
- Promotes and encourages changes outlined in new bylaws
- Informs/communicates new direction of USBC Youth associations and conforms with new guidelines
- Education and training
- Works with each respective Board to understand authority and responsibility of IBC Youth Committee
- Works with state and local youth associations as well as the National Board
- Formalizes dedicated staff responsibility to Youth Committee.
- Outline "Youth to Board" direction of actions and responsibilities.

SKILL SETS

IBC will look for candidates with personal skill sets such as: strategic thinker, professional, team player, ability to lead, youth orientated, ability to influence and make financial decisions, in vogue with youth trends, has educational and hands-on experience with youth programming and activities, understands the different stages of youth bowling from the beginner to the advanced and willing to listen, hear and respond to the youth.

Other basic skill sets helpful but not required; legal experience, financial background, expertise in demographics, fund raising experience.

USBC MEMBERSHIP AND REGISTERED VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

All applicants must be current USBC members, approved through the USBC Registered Volunteer Program.

FOR QUESTIONS CONTACT:

Nominating.Committee@bowl.com
Phone: 817-385-8223
800-514-BOWL, ext. 8223