NOTE: All participants in the 2022 USBC Women's Championships must read and sign the Acknowledgement of Assumption of Risk and Waiver of Liability terms located on the back of the Pink Sheet.

The United States Bowling Congress thanks you for your entry into the 2022 USBC Women's Championships! You can expect a fun and fantastic competi-tion. Please read the following important information.

Of course, as with any competitive sport, there is a risk of bodily injury while participating in USBC bowling events and activities, whether caused by you or someone else. The ongoing coronavirus pandemic presents an additional potential health risk. USBC is taking reasonable and prudent steps to ensure the safety of its members and their guests at the bowling centers and other venues where USBC bowling events and activities take place.

THUS, USBC IS HEREBY NOTIFYING YOU OF CERTAIN LIMITATIONS TO ITS LIABILITY. AS A USBC WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS PARTICIPANT, BY YOUR SIGNATURE BELOW, YOU HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

- You expressly and voluntarily accept and assume all of the risks inherent in participating in USBC bowling events and activities, including, but not limited to, bodily injury or disease strains (e.g., fractures, sprains, muscle and/or ligament tears, eye injury, heart attack or other ailments that could cause serious disability), that might be caused by the negligence of USBC and all of its directors, officers, owners, agents, employ-ees, predecessors, attorneys, insurers, affiliates, subsidiaries, related corporations, parents corporations and successors (collectively, "USBC's Released Persons and Entities") or the owners, lessors or occupants of the premises on which any USBC bowling event or activity takes place.
- You hereby voluntarily release, forever discharge and agree to indemnify and hold harmless USBC's Released Persons and Entities from any and all claims, demands or causes of action which are in any way connected with your participation in any USBC bowling event or activity arising from negligence on the part of USBC's Released Persons and Entities. This release does not apply to claims arising from reckless or intentional conduct.
- You acknowledge that neither USBC's Released Persons and Entities, nor the owners, lessors or occupants of the premises on which any USBC bowling event or activity takes place, owes any duty to keep the premises safe for entry or use by others participating in any recreation-al activity, including, but not limited to, competitive bowling activities, or to give warning of any hazardous condition, activity or use of any structure on the premises to persons entering for those purposes.
- You further acknowledge that by competing in this event, neither USBC's Released Persons and Entities, nor the owners, lessors or occupants of the premises on which any USBC bowling event or activity takes place, are extending any assurance the premises are safe for the purpose of competitive bowling or assume responsibility for or incur any liability for any injury to person or property caused by any act of persons to whom permission is granted to participate in such USBC bowling event or activity.

Again, safety is a team sport. If you observe any unusual or significant hazard during your participation at any USBC bowling event or activity, please notify the nearest USBC or competition official and remove yourself from the situation as soon as possible.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY REGARDING COVID-19.

USBC also firmly believes maintaining a safe environment requires a team effort. To that end, consistent with CDC guidelines, we ask that all partici-pants and their guests comply with our safe social distancing and hygiene practices, which USBC will be enforcing at all bowling events and activities. We ask you to be mindful of the fact that participation in USBC bowling events and activities includes possible exposure to and illness from infectious diseases, including COVID-19. Although particular rules and personal discipline may reduce this risk, the risk of contracting an infectious disease, including COVID-19, remains.

By participating in a USBC bowling event or activity, you freely and fully assume the risk of the possibility of contracting an infectious disease, including COVID-19, and understand this Assumption of Risk and Waiver of Liability form is intended to cover any and all claims, demands, or causes of action which are in any way connected with your contraction of any infectious disease, including COVID-19, at any USBC bowling event or activity arising from negligence on the part of USBC's Released Persons and Entities.

By signing this Assumption of Risk and Waiver of Liability form, you expressly acknowledge that you have had sufficient time to read this entire form and, should you choose to do so, consult with legal counsel prior to signing. Also, you understand that entry into the event might not be made available to me or that the cost of entry would be significantly greater if you were to choose not to sign this Assumption of Risk and Waiver of Liability form and agree that the opportunity to compete at the stated cost in return for the execution of this form is a reasonable bargain.

YOU HAVE READ AND UNDERSTOOD THIS DOCUMENT, AND YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS.
